Mary Lou (Kemple) Shobe, a long-time resident of Maple Grove, MN passed away on April 19th, 2020 in Orlando, FL.

In 1952 Mary Lou married Ronald Shobe and worked with him as a partner in both their life and business ventures. The Shobes sold their business in 1984 and retired, spending much of their time in Fort Myers, Florida where they enjoyed an extensive social network.

A highly active member in her community, Mary Lou was a charter member of St. Gerard's Parish, and a member of the Board of Directors at both Community Emergency Assistance Program (CEAP) and North Hennepin Community College.
